Woman Brutally Killed When She Fails to Give Them Money.

White Plains, N. Y., November 10 .-Mrs. Henry Hall, wife of a contractor employed on the Catskill aqueduct, was murdered yesterday by three men after robbing Miss Griffin, a school tax collector, who lived in the same house, near Yorktown, they dragged Mrs. Hall from her bed and slashed er to death.

While one man with a revolver stood guard over Miss Griffin and other occupants of the house, the three men went to the room of Mrs. Hall, who was ill, and demanded money. She was her to get out of bed. They then dragged her to the floor and stabbed dragged her to the floor and stabbed her repeatedly.

When news of the crime spread a posse of farmers and aqueduct laborers quickly assembled and began a search of the woods and hills. Sheriff flartnett swore in twenty-one deputies, and in automobiles hurried to the scene of the murder. During the afternoon five foreignrs who were found in the neighborhood were arrested, all denied knowledge of the crime. They were rushed to White Plains in the automobiles by Sheriff Hartnett, who feared that the angry farmers might lynch his prisoners.

Itali and his wife, whom he married six months ago, occupied the upper part of the house, while Miss Griffin, with her mother, and Mrs. James S. Une and the latter's two children lived on the first floor. Miss Griffin, through her duties as school tax collector, often had large sums of money in the house, and it is believed the robbers knew of this.

Sheriff Hartnett and Coroner A. O. Squire, of White Plains, learned that ow the three others went upstairs to Mrs. Hall's bedroom. They were up there only a few minutes, and when they came down they threatened the three terrified women and two chillren with death if they made an out-

Sheriff Hartnett and Coroner A. O. Squire, of White Plains, learned that have strange men alighted from a train which stopped at the Croton Lake station of the Futnum division of the New York Central at 1 o'clock in the morning. They disappeared in the woods.

Four men entered the Hall home at 10 o'clock in the morning, while the fifth remained on guard outside. The four ordered Miss Griffin to open a small safe that stood in a corner of one of the rooms. She obeyed and gave them $450, all the money it contained. They threatened to kill her if she did not give them $4,000, which, they said, she had. She finally convinced them that there was no more.

Arrest of Firm Members Follows Filing of Petition in Bankruptcy.

Baltimore, Md., November 10.—A petition in bankruptcy against Kirwan Brothers, grain brokers, of this city, was filed in the United States District

Brothers, grain brokers, of this city, was filed in the United States District Court here to-day. Subsequently the grand jury found presentments against darry C. Hindes and William Marshall, respectively treasurer and bookkeeper of the firm, in connection with the discovery of alleged fraudwient bills of lading among the firm's collateral with the First National Bank of Baltimore. Liabilities in excess of $5,000 were given in the petition, and the firm in its answer admitted the claims and consented to the action. It was announced that the court would later pass an order of adjudication. The petitioners were the First National Bank and the grain firms of Gilland, Fisher & Hammond. Snyder & Co.

The firm of Kirwan Brothers has been in business since 1885, and it is said to have had close relations with the recently failed firm of Pitt Brothers & Co., whose senior member, Pembroke W. Pitt, is under presentment on charges of forging bills of lading, Walter Kirwan is president.
